-------------------------	--------------------------------

- |    |  |
|----|--|
| 1. | The defendant is to be confined to her residence for a period of 3 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.18 per day. |
|----|--|

The offender has failed to pay in full the costs associated with her home confinement. To date, she has paid $310.00, and the balance owed is $373.92.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender continues to contribute to her outstanding financial obligation to the best of her ability, but may be unable to pay the balance in full prior to her probation expiration date of August 13, 2008.

The probation office is respectfully recommending that the offender's supervision term be allowed to expire as scheduled on August 13, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Richard A. Gallo, Supervising
